Hawthorn School for Girls

3.75 KM away

Elementary, High, Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten and Middle

101 Scarsdale Road, North York, ON M3B

Hawthorn is the only independent, Catholic-inspired, all-girl school in Toronto. We are also the only girls' school that provides a "small-school experience", where each girl is known, participates and flourishes in every aspect of school life. In 1989, a group of parents and educators founded a school specifically for the purpose of educating the whole person. The founders dreamed of a school that would recognize parents as the first and most important educators in their children's lives. They envisioned a school that would give equal priority to the pursuit of academic excellence and the development of character. Today, Hawthorn is part of an international network of similar schools that provide an integral education.

Sunnybrook Farm was the 154 hectare country estate of Joseph Kilgour in the late 1800s. It is located north of Leaside and south of the Bridle Path areas of the city. After Kilgour's passing, his wife Alice donated Sunnybrook Farms to the city in 1928 to be used as a park. The Kilgour barns were preserved and currently serve as a public riding school. The Metropolitan Police stabled here up until their move down to the stables at Exhibition Place in 2005. The park is home to many bike trails, a dog park, and Sunnybrook Stables with the fields now used for sports and recreation.
