110 Tenth Street, Etobicoke, Ontario M8V 3G1

St. Josaphat Catholic School welcomes students from across Toronto who seek an education rooted in Eastern Rite Catholic traditions, combining academic excellence with spiritual development. We are proud to integrate our Eastern Rite religious and cultural traditions into school life. Students participate in liturgies, parish celebrations, and preparation for First Solemn Communion. St. Josaphat Catholic School was the first of three Eastern Rite schools established in Toronto, alongside St. Demetrius and Josyf Cardinal Slipyj Catholic Schools. Inspired by Bishop Isidore Borecky's vision to provide children with a strong spiritual foundation, the community raised funds to build a private parochial school. The original six-classroom building opened in 1961, staffed by the Sister Servants of Mary Immaculate. Monsignor Basil Filevich played a key role in encouraging families within the Ukrainian Catholic community to enrol their children.

St. Mark Catholic School is currently more than half a century old, having been built in 1957. There has always been a close association between St. Mark Catholic School and St. Mark Church, as the pastors have all been eager to work with the school. The close proximity of both buildings helps in this regard. Our school is named after St. Mark, one of the four evangelists, who was a contemporary of St. Peter and St. Paul. Mark and Barnabas preached the good news in Cyprus. The school and community celebrate his feast day on April 25, our special day.
